OIL NEWS

Four miles southwest of Bridgeport, in this county, the Hope Company has drilled its test on the George Lancaster farm through the fifth sand, and has a duster in that formation. The well is drilling below the fifth sand, and it is the intention of the owners to make a deep test, deeper than any other in that locality.

On the east side of the Polson district, in this county the South Penn Oil Company has drilled its No. 5 on the Catherine Ice farm into the Gordon pay, and the well produced 25 barrels the first 24 hours. The same company has drilled its No. 22 on the Genine Robinson tract into the Gordon, and has a show for a 20 barrel pumper. The second test on the J. W. Davis farm is drilling near the top of the fifth sand.

In the Salem district, the South Penn has drilled its second test on the A. A. Stout farm into the stray sand 60 feet, and has developed no oil or gas. The second test on the S. R. Lanham farm has been drilled into the Gordon pay, and produced 20 barrels the first 24 hours.

Will Cure Consumption.

A. A. Herren, of Finch, Ark., writes: "Foley's Honey and Tar is the best preparation for coughs, colds and lung trouble. I know that it has cured consumption in the first stages." It stops the cough, soothes and heals the inflamed membranes in the throat and lungs and prevents serious lung trouble. It is guaranteed for all throat and lung diseases. Refuse substitutes. For sale by Stone & Mercer, Wells & Haymaker and R. J. Criss.

A LAST WORD

The County Sabbath School convention will convene on Monday at 10:30 a. m. in the Horeb church, Craigmont, eight miles up Elk creek, and be in session until Tuesday, at 4:00 p. m. The convention meets in one of the best communities in this county, and delegates will be well taken care of.

A strong program has been prepared, and the speakers will talk upon practical subjects that take hold on things eternal. "Schools of Methods" and "Open Conferences," conducted by Mr. Shafer and Miss Graham, will be helpful to all Sabbath school workers. There should be a large attendance of teachers and superintendents and pastors and district officers. "A good convention does for your school what heaven does for the measure of meal. It sets things to working." There will be good music and Prof. Johns has been engaged by the Horeb Sunday school to lead the con-
